1. Dr. Otto Korfes, chief of the Brandenburg NIDP has organized a Central Archives Section attached to the office of the Minister President of the DDR on Thälmann Platz in the Russian Sector of Berlin.
2. The functions of this section are:
 - a. To catalogue all police and military organizations, groups, and associations in West Germany with details on their size, origin, importance, goals, and functions and to make this material available to the Minister President.
 - b. To keep a close check on all military and police figures of the Wehrmacht and to maintain a file on their present whereabouts and occupation.
 - c. To maintain contact with all individuals and groups in West Germany who might be approachable for military functions. A special fund is available for this purpose.
 - d. To observe all returning PWs. Personnel records from PW camps are turned over to the section for this purpose and it also maintains a unit at Frankfurt/Oder.
